Writing Badges for Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders

Calgary children's author Simon Rose is the author of The Alchemist's Portrait, The Sorcerer's Letterbox, The Clone Conspiracy, The Emerald Curse, The Heretic's Tomb and The Doomsday Mask.

Simon offers a wide variety of presentations, workshops and author in residence programs for schools and libraries, plus services for writers, including editing and online workshops, and writing services for business, full details of which can be found at his website at www.simon-rose.com. You may also visit his blog at simon-rose.blogspot.com

Simon is available for lively, interactive and fun-filled creative writing sessions to help your brownies, guides or pathfinders attain their writing badges. Topics covered can include where writers get ideas from, the writing process, story structure, time travel stories, character development, editing and revision, dramatic beginnings and cliffhanger endings, the importance of research and more.

He is however very flexible, able to adapt his programs to the requirements of the various levels of writing badges and always happy to discuss whatever sessions you feel will be best suited to your unit.

Simon is able to work with a wide age range and his sessions are suitable for brownies, guides and pathfinders. The fee for a session is $100, plus GST.

For further details on how Simon can assist with your writing badge work, please contact him directly at sorcerersletterbox@gmail.com.
